MM Docket No. 92-266

Rate Regulation)

MOTION TO EXCEED PAGE LIMITATION

Continental Cablevision, Inc. hereby requests permission to exceed the 25 page limit, set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 1.429(f), for oppositions to petitions for reconsideration in rulemaking proceedings. Continental submits that the rate regulation Report & Order at issue ranks as one of the most complex and cataclysmic items in FCC history. It does nothing less than force wholesale restructuring of the cable industry.

A number of the petitions which Continental opposes exceeded the 25 page limit. Continental's Opposition, submitted with this motion, contains 36 pages, only 11 above the number of pages permitted by regulation. Continental asks the Commission to grant this motion and to accept in full Continental's Opposition.

Respectfully submitted,

R Sachs / pg
